

WORKSHOPS

TUESDAY 18 MAY 5PM

Centre Stage - An actor Q&A

This panel Q&A session is with actors from various backgrounds, which will give you an insight into the life of an actor and the various journeys and experiences to get them where they are today. Each panelist will give a 5-10 minute introduction into their experience of being an actor, then the floor will be opened to questions. Please come ready to ask our actors questions and get involved in the discussion.

You can register here.

WEDNESDAY 19 MAY 5PM

Words on the stage - An insight into writing for the stage

This will be a discussion between NT director Joe Litchenstein and an NT Connections playwright (to be announced) on how you take an idea from the page to the stage. This workshop is designed to give you an insight into how this process works and will give you hints and tips on writing for stage.

You can register here.

THURSDAY 20 MAY 5PM

Set the stage - An insight into designing for the stage

This presentation is a chance to hear a professional designer talk through their process, including how they approach a show and bring ideas to life. They will be sharing their real-life drawings, model boxes and set shots. This will show you how to set the stage right and bring those drawings to life.

You can register here.

FRIDAY 21 MAY 5PM

The Marlowe stage - An insight into working at The Marlowe

A panel of Marlowe team members present what it takes to bring a visiting show to our stage and along the way you will hear about the different roles that are needed to make a show happen. From programmers scheduling and making a deal with producers, to marketing the show and selling tickets, to unloading the lorry and presenting the show, to opening the doors for the audience. Hear how we host and sell a show at The Marlowe.

You can register here.

THE MARLOWE

National Theatre
Connections 2021

National Theatre

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND