The powerful figures who shaped English history are brought vividly to life in this award-winning play.

Robert Bolt's classic play of power and conscience set in the Tudor Court of Henry VIII stars Martin Shaw as Sir Thomas More – scholar, ambassador, Lord Chancellor and friend to King Henry VIII.

One of the UK's best-loved actors on stage and screen, Martin Shaw is known to millions for his television roles in Judge John Deed, Inspector George Gently and The Professionals. His recent West End stage appearances include Hobson's Choice, The Best Man and Twelve Angry Men.

THE SHARK IS BROKEN

Written by Ian Shaw and Joseph Nixon

Direct from the West End and Broadway, this Olivier-award nominated five-star play celebrates movie history, diving into the choppy waters of Hollywood's first blockbuster.

FADE IN: The open ocean, 1974. Filming is delayed... again. The lead actors – theatre veteran Robert Shaw and young Hollywood hotshots Richard Dreyfuss and Roy Scheider are crammed into a too-small boat, entirely at the mercy of foul weather and a faulty mechanical co-star. Alcohol flows, egos collide, and tempers flare on a chaotic voyage that just might lead to cinematic magic... if it doesn't sink them all.

Step aboard the Orca and into the production of The Shark is Broken, a "profound dive behind the scenes of the making of Jaws" (Daily Telegraph). This new play is "hilariously brilliant and pure genius" raves the Sunday Express and stars Ian Shaw (War Horse, Common) as his father, Robert Shaw.

Do you remember what happened that strange night in the Forest of Arden? Puck does. It's been a while since A Midsummer Night's Dream and Athens is changing. The forest is being chopped down, and as each tree vanishes, more magic disappears from the land.

The Vanishing Forest follows the events of A Midsummer Night's Dream as Puck joins forces with Cassie and Mylas, children of Duke Theseus and Hippolyta, to educate and inspire children on the issue of deforestation with Shakespearean-infused song, puppetry and adventure.

Matthew Bourne's SWAN LAKE

The next generation.

New Adventures return with their audacious, rule-breaking reinvention of Tchaikovsky's masterpiece. Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake caused a sensation when it premiered almost 30 years ago. It has now become the most successful dance theatre production of all time, creating new audiences and inspiring generations of young dancers. In celebration, Swan Lake will take flight once more in a major new revival for the next generation of dancers, and for audiences who will experience it for the very first time.

Thrilling, bold and witty, this genre-defining event shattered convention by replacing the female corps-de-ballet with a menacing male ensemble.

Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake took the dance theatre world by storm, becoming the longest running full-length dance classic in the West End and on Broadway. It has since been performed across the globe, collecting over thirty international accolades including an Olivier and three Tony Awards.

"The show that changed the dance landscape forever."

CIRQUE ÉLOIZE: ID RELOADED

Directed and created by Jeannot Painchaud

Mixing urban dance, daring stunts and dazzling acrobatics.

iD Reloaded inspired by iD, Cirque Éloize's ground-breaking and breath-taking West End and International hit, is an intoxicating blend of circus arts and urban dance: b-boying/b-girling, breakdance, hip-hop and more.

The scene is set in the heart of a city, in a public space where people seek refuge and a chance to shed their anonymity; a place where identity is forged and individuality is expressed.

Set to a pulsating and stimulating soundtrack by composers Jean-Phi Goncalves (Beast) and Alex McMahon, directed and created by Jeannot Painchaud, iD Reloaded is a thrilling piece of work, full of attitude, energy and invention.

"Mixes circus and urban dance to cracking effect - the skill and excitement levels are sky-high." THE GUARDIAN

"This truly thrilling modern circus show from the Canadian-based troupe was as nail-biting as it was beautiful." THE TELEGRAPH

BALLET BLACK: SHADOWS

Cassa Pancho's award-winning, neo-classical ballet company, present a double bill of new work.

Cassa Pancho's Ballet Black returns with the darkly comic adaptation of international bestselling novel, My Sister, The Serial Killer by Oyinkan Braithwaite. When Korede gets a call from her sister Ayoola, she knows what to do. It's the third boyfriend Ayoola has killed in 'self-defense,' and the third mess Korede has to clean up. Things change, when Ayoola starts dating the doctor Korede has loved for years. Korede can't let him be the next victim - but saving him might mean betraying her sister...

The second piece of the double bill is from Brooklyn-born, award-winning choreographer, Chanel DaSilva who is known for using the power of the arts to inspire change. Her work has been commissioned by renowned companies and DaSilva made history as the first Black woman to choreograph for The Joffrey Ballet. Her work delves into what it means to be human, with a focus on driving positive change. For her debut ballet for Cassa Pancho's Ballet Black, DaSilva explores the intense practice of shadow work and how it can reveal our true selves.
